Move to Universal Credit? 2 online modules

This course provides a detailed look at migration to Universal Credit including managed and natural migration, better-off calculations and how best to advise claimants. Case examples will highlight the issues involved and provide a basis for discussion.

Module one we will consider:

- What is natural migration and when does it happen
- Managed migration, who it affects and when

Module two we will consider:

- Transitional protection
- Better-off calculations
- When to move to Universal Credit

Target Group: Experienced

This course is relevant to anyone who has a working knowledge of Universal Credit and works with working age claimants.

By the end of the course you will have:

Confidence to advise clients about the move to Universal Credit and how it will affect them. An understanding of the impact of Universal Credit migration and how your organisation can work to support clients.
